Iranian Almonds

There are different types of Iranian almond such as stone, rabi, mamra and bitter almond but the most popular is the Mamra almond, which is sweet and very delicious and has a great reputation in the world. we have had many customers for mamra almond kernels from all over the world, especially the Arab countries, India, China, and European countries.

Mamra Almond

appearance of kernels: gold color(light brown), sweet and fatty, softer texture compared to other types of almonds

The weight of each Mamra almond with shell is about 4 grams, and about 36% of this amount is the weight of the Mamra almond kernel.

Packaging

Satco exports Almonds and other nuts and dried fruits in bulk and in packaged with your desired design and label (completely customized).
